REVEREND JOHNSON'S LETTER.

In another part of this paper we print the very interesting letter of Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, to the great Douglas meeting in New York city. No reader should pass by this letter by. It is one of the most important documents that has yet come up bearing on the question at hand. It is surely as it is important. Read and preserve the letter.

THE REBELLION'S CONVENTION.

The Richmond secession convention, says the Lynchburg (Va.) Republique, does not make headway. On the 14th meeting in Virginia, only some 200 delegates are reported to have attended. The Richmond convention, and they have only requested them to attend for the purpose of consultation, and not for the purpose of action. No delegate, therefore, from Virginia, has been able to be there from a single State, that remained in the Confederate convention.

These resolutions, says the Lynchburg Republique, are of the right stamp, and the people are all right; if they are directed to politicians, then the South will be safe. We have no doubt the same may be said of nearly every county in the State.

THE GREAT SPEECH OF SENATOR DOUGLASS.—Trifles from an Opponent.

The speech of Sen. John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, on the 14th, in the Senate, was delivered in the House of Representatives, and he has done his best to sustain the Richmond convention.

These resolutions, says the Lynchburg Republique, are of the right stamp, and the people are all right; if they are directed to politicians, then the South will be safe. We have no doubt the same may be said of nearly every county in the State.

THE DEMOCRATIC IN MOTION.

The Democracy of Wake county, North Carolina, held a mass meeting at Raleigh, to nominate candidates for the election of A. Douglas for the next presidency, believing that he is the choice of the great American people.

Resolved, That if Stephen A. Douglas should be nominated for the next president, we will rally to him as he is related to Pierce and Douglass, and extend our sympathies to him.

Other resolutions were adopted, setting forth the merits of Judge Douglas. The speech of Mr. Holmes, the editor of the Raleigh Standard, and a speech to the electors of A. Douglas, were voted down.

Resolved, That if Stephen A. Douglas should be nominated for the next president, we will rally to him as he is related to Pierce and Douglass, and extend our sympathies to him.

FOR DOUGLASS.

The Hon. G. H. Davis—Dear Sirs. In answer to your letter requesting my opinion as to the propriety of your sending Mr. A. Douglas to the House of Representatives, I have the pleasure to inform you that he is the only man who can be elected as the next president of the United States.
